

IBS Award Conditions

Funds disbursed by the International Biogeography Society to external organizations for the purpose of supporting the generation and dissemination of biogeographic knowledge are subject to the following restrictions:

Grants awarded to students to defray the costs of travel to the biennial IBS conference may not have any indirect costs charged to them.

In other cases, institutional indirect costs will be limited to 10% of direct costs, and tuition costs are not allowable within budget proposals.

Approved by the IBS Board
April 28, 2009